ENERGY EFFICIENT MODERN LIVING

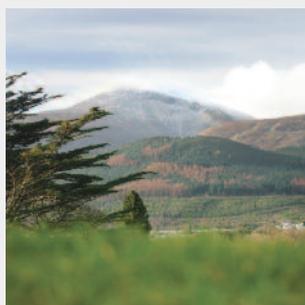

COASTAL LIVING

Framed by the Mourne Mountains sweeping down to the sea on one side, and the rocky outcrops of Dundrum Bay on the other, it's easy to see why Newcastle is such a sought-after place to live. Yet this coastal town offers more than just beautiful backdrops. It is also home to a bustling main street with independent shops, cafes, restaurants and boutiques, not to mention the world-famous Royal County Down Golf Course and one of the most spectacular beaches in Northern Ireland.

But whether it's a hike up the mountains, a cycle through Tollymore Forest Park, or a morning walk along the beach followed by a coffee in town, there's no denying that this is an area for embracing the outdoors and all that it has to offer. As far as coastal living goes, it doesn't get much better than this.
